BIJLAGE 1 LIJST VAN ZEN-ERFGOED MET AANDUIDING OP KAART

Het Onroerenderfgoedbesluit definieert ZEN-erfgoed als volgt*: "beschermde onroerende goederen of onroerende goederen gelegen in een erfgoedlandschap, of een deel ervan dat een opzichzelfstaand geheel vormt, dat niet van dien aard is dat het economisch nut kan hebben, en dat uitdrukkelijk als dusdanig erkend is in de beslissing waarbij het beheersplan werd goedgekeurd."*

De Commonwealth War Graves Commission staat in voor het onderhoud en het beheer van het monument. Sinds haar oprichting in 1917 – toen nog als de Imperial War Graves Commission, is het herdenken van de oorlogsslachtoffers uit de Eerste en Tweede Wereldoorlog nog steeds het belangrijkste objectief van de Commonwealth War Graves Commission. Hierbij wordt geen enkel economisch winstbelang vooropgesteld en ontvangt ze geen doorslaggevende economisch opbrengst of nut.
